UNITED ARAB EMIRATES
MINISTRY OF ECONOMY & TOURISM

Dubai, 28-29 October 2026

Seventh ARAB COMPETITION FORUM (ACF)

SESSION 1 | SPEAKERS AND BIOGRAPHIES

Ex-ante regulation and competition in digital markets

Day 1 • Wednesday, 28 October 2026 • 11.00 a.m.–12.30 p.m.

Session coordinator: United Arab Emirates

MODERATOR

Mohammed Sultan Janahi

Director of Competition, Ministry of Economy and Tourism, United Arab Emirates

Mohammed Sultan Janahi leads the Competition Department at the UAE Ministry of Economy & Tourism as Director. Previously, Mohammed was responsible for developing and implementing AML/CFT monitoring strategies for non-financial sectors across the UAE, including as Head of AML/CFT Supervision. In addition, Mohammed worked at the International Monetary Fund's unit responsible for AML/CFT to monitor efforts across a portfolio of countries, providing technical assistance, and contributing to policy development. Mohammed developed his regulatory skills during his tenure with the Dubai Financial Services Authority where he was responsible for licensing and supervising banks and non-bank financial institutions in the Dubai International Financial Centre.

He holds a Master of Laws degree with a specialization in financial crime from the University of Dubai, and a BBA with a specialization in Financial Services from the Higher Colleges of Technology – Dubai.

SPEAKER

Diogo Thomson de Andrade

President, Administrative Council for Economic Defense (CADE), Brazil

Diogo Thomson de Andrade has been serving as Acting President of the Brazilian Competition Authority (CADE) since April 2026, and has been a Commissioner at CADE since 2023. He previously served as Assistant Superintendent at CADE for 11 years, as well as Acting Superintendent-General on two occasions (2021-2022 and 2017).

He holds a PhD in Law from the Brasília Institute for Education, Development, and Research (IDP) and a Master's degree in Philosophy of Law from the Pontifical Catholic University of São Paulo (PUC-SP). He has been a Federal Attorney since 2004.

SPEAKER

Al-Anoud Al-Fahad

Director of the Antitrust and Competition Investigations Department, and Acting Director of the Economic Affairs Department, Kuwait Competition Protection Agency, Kuwait

Biography to be provided.

SPEAKER

Nathalie Khaled

Economic Affairs Officer, and Lead of the Economic Governance, Development Planning and Regulatory Modernization Workstream, ESCWA

Nathalie Khaled has more than 20 years of professional experience across the United Nations system and the private sector, spanning economic policy, governance, development, and institutional and regulatory reform. She currently leads regional and national initiatives and programmes at the United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Western Asia (ESCWA) in development planning, economic governance, and regulatory modernization, including competition policy, consumer protection, and the development of legislative and institutional frameworks.

She has extensive experience in providing technical advice to Arab governments, preparing economic and sectoral studies and market assessments, supporting legislative and regulatory reforms, and building institutional capacity. She also contributes to strengthening regional and international cooperation, developing digital tools, and applying data, innovation, and behavioural insights to support evidence-based policymaking.

She holds a Master of Business Administration from the Lebanese American University, a Diploma in Economics for Competition Law from King's College London, and a Certificate in Public Sector Leadership from Cornell University.

SPEAKER • VIRTUAL

Camille Ammeloot

Competition Lawyer and Case Officer, Digital Markets Act Team, Directorate-General for Competition, European Commission

Camille is a competition lawyer and case handler in the team in charge of the enforcement of the Digital Markets Act (DMA) at the European Commission's Directorate General for Competition. She worked on the first ever non-compliance cases under the DMA and is specialised in the enforcement of data-related obligations. Before joining the DMA Team, she was a case handler enforcing European antitrust policies and before that, she was a competition lawyer in an international law firm.